

Poor and oppressed in her Nepali village, 17-year old Kalpa longed to leave. When a young man promised her a job in India she jumped at the chance. As they traveled toward India, he hurt her. Approaching the border of India, Kalpa staggered along aimless and hopeless. At the border some young women dressed in purple called to her and began asking questions.

“Where was she going?”
 “Did she know the man accompanying her?”
 “Had he attempted to hurt her in any way?”
 “Would she like some help?”

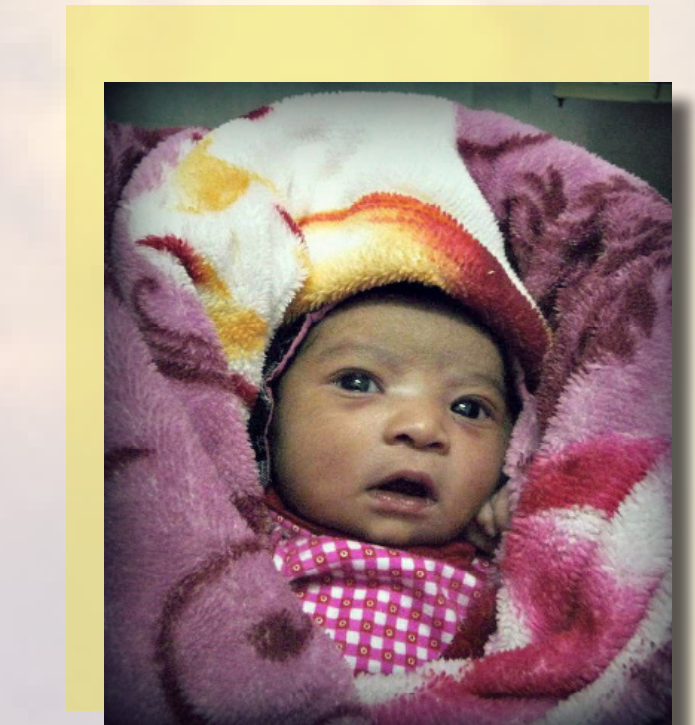

When 10/40’s surveillance workers understood Kalpa’s desperate situation, they secured a place for her to stay in a recovery home.

As a standard procedure, all women who enter the recovery homes take a pregnancy test. Kalpa’s test came back positive. Not yet a believer in Jesus, Kalpa wanted an abortion.

But Kalpa experienced love in the home. People spoke with her about the baby inside, and Kalpa bravely decided to give life to her baby. As the months passed, Kalpa learned vocational skills and eventually gave her heart to Jesus. She declared one day, “I want my baby to live. But I think it’s best to place the baby for adoption.” Before delivery, 10/40 and partners began to work to find a home for the baby.

Recently Kalpa gave birth to a beautiful baby girl and the baby was adopted by a loving Christian Nepali family who named her “Angel.”

Kalpa has now returned to her village with newly acquired tailoring skills. She desires to share the Gospel with her family and neighbors, trapped in cycles of poverty, oppression and hopelessness.

We celebrate God’s “double rescue” at the border and for the multiple families impacted by our vigilant border workers.

Rescue, Salvation, Birth, Adoption, Gospel multiplied. Kalpa’s dramatic story, which began with evil, reveals God’s ability to care for the whole person and the multiple ways that 10/40 Connections seeks to offer both life and hope.

EQUIP BELIEVERS

“Because of the Ummeed training 26 houses have started in our area. People are responding to teaching and more disciples and prayer warriors are getting ready and working in the field. Amen.”

– Bro. Sanjiv, North India

FIGHT INJUSTICE

“When I was young, I always had a question. I wanted to know if God cared about women. As a believer now, I know Jesus does, so I want to use Voice for the Voiceless teaching to show other women the value God gives us.”

– Sis. Ramila, West India

EMPOWER AT-RISK CHILDREN

“My son Pranay could not speak at all. He began attending the Lunch Change school and the teachers prayed for him each day. Jesus healed my son. My wife and I love Savior Jesus and give him thanks. We want to open our home for a house church.”

– Bro. Akade, India

INNOVATE MINISTRIES

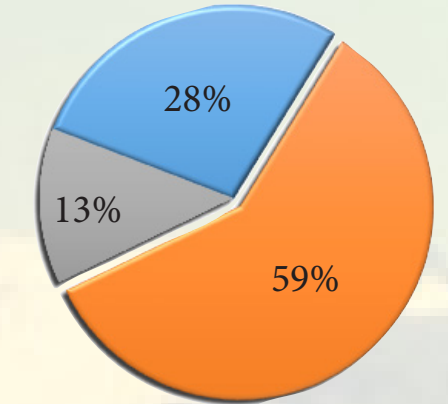

“When I first got a MegaVoice, I said, ‘This is not necessary for me. I need other things... but I feel now this is the most important thing in life. I hear this (MV) when I get disappointed, worried and feel loneliness. Thank you God, you send me such a valuable gift.’”

– Sis. Sumitra, Nepal

Dear Friends,
As we look back on 2013, we continue to be amazed at God's gracious hand. God continues to merge various ministries of 10/40 like a net.

In the story of Kalpa, we see a young woman rescued through TraffickStop, her baby at-risk spared through a decision spurred by 10/40's Voice for the Voiceless, an adoption through merged partnerships, salvation, vocational skills and a woman who returns home passionate to share the Gospel with her family.

Kalpa is just one example of how God continues to empower our efforts to combine the word and deed of the Gospel.

As you read this report, celebrate how God has worked his blessings through your partnership. May you be blessed as you see that God used your partnership to provide blessings to others.
