

Brief Intro

Leslie Neal Segraves serves as a global mission leader, speaker, apologist, and author. Leslie is the president of 10/40 Connections (www.1040connections.org), a mission organization she and her husband Chad co-founded in 2000. She carries a passion for the world to be reached with the Good News of Jesus, advocates for the pre-born, and champions God's daughters and sons to both lead and love well.

10/40 Connections catalyzes initiatives that fuel Disciple Making Movements among the least reached. Their equipping initiative Serving Shoulder to Shoulder (www.servingshouldertoshoulder.com) theologically and practically helps men and women run fast and far together to complete the Great Commission. Their life-defending initiative Life Voices Coalition is a global network seeking to end the genocide of abortion.

Leslie earned her Doctorate of Missiology from Fuller in 2009, and she co-authored Engaged in Love and War: Living a Life of Commitment and Courage. Leslie labored as a co-catalyst within the Lausanne Movement, and she serves on the national speaking team for Life Training Institute as a pro-life apologist. Leslie, Chad, and their children, when not living or working in Asia, reside in the Tampa Bay area.

