Better Together: Biblical Basis for Men and Women in Ministry

God's plan is better than any culture, and he reveals his powerful strategy from Genesis to Revelation. How do you answer, "I do not permit a woman to speak"? Or "A woman's voice is disgraceful in the assembly." Hold fast to the Bible, and gain clarity on God's heart in this life-changing seminar. Suitable for men and women, teenagers and above. From a single 60-minute presentation, to a 2-3 day weekend conference.

How to Love Your Pre-born Neighbor: Defend Life and Show the Value of Babies and Women

Loving, practical, and understandable. Using graceful humor, godly logic, and clear science Leslie clearly presents an apologetic (defense) for pre-born babies. Inform your audience about the world's largest genocide – abortion, and how they can make a difference. Adaptable for either fundraising events or training sessions.

Suitable for men and women, teenagers and above. 60-minute presentation.

The Global Church: Current International Trends of Male-Female Partnership

Want to grapple with global trends and dive into stories of triumph and tragedy from the worldwide Church? Enjoy an uplifting and powerful overview of men and women working together (or not). Those with a desire to see God's purposes fulfilled will be encouraged and challenged by what can happen when men and women work together. Suitable for men and women, teenagers and above. 60-minute presentation.

The Task Remaining: The People Group Challenge

Is there an ultimate "finish line" in this marathon called the Christian life? This challenging message introduces (or expands upon) numerous concepts including: the 10/40 Window; unreached, unengaged people groups; and church planting movements. Be ready to think strategically and do your part in God's great story. Suitable for men and women, teenagers and above. Can be done in a single, rapid 60-minute presentation, but preferred with three talks of 45 minutes each. (Also can be adapted to a sermon length of time).

Cast the Net: God's Character, God's Kingdom, God's Mission

Come wrestle with critical topics that just might rock your world. How can the Trinity give you a starting point to grapple with multiple social issues confronting the Church today? How does God's character impact how we view, understand, and engage social issues that surround us? Jesus' first sermon introduced a dangerous counter-cultural kingdom; are you living it out practically? How are you co-laboring with God in His mission to extend the kingdom throughout the earth? What else needs to be done to accomplish His mission? Suitable for men and women, teenagers and above. From a single 60-minute presentation, to a 2-3 day weekend conference, or even a Master's Level course.

Engaged in Love and War: Living a Life of Commitment and Courage

Thought-provoking and response-evoking, Engaged in Love and War takes participants on a journey into the dangerous, endearing, and sacrificial responsibility of every believer. Leslie and Chad mobilize Christ-followers to realize that their gentle Savior invites them into a raging battle. Suitable for men and women, teenagers and above. From a single 60-minute presentation to a 2-3 day weekend conference.

Concerts of Prayer: Majority World Religions

For congregations and groups who desire to intercede with insight and inspiration. Chad and Leslie work with your worship team to create a deep, powerful, and informational event. Choose one (or more) religious block to focus on, and prepare your hearts and minds to bless these nations. Suitable for men and women, teenagers and above. The concerts usually run 60-90 minutes including worship music.

The God of Justice: The Divine Basis for Anti-Trafficking Efforts

We all know human trafficking is a scourge on the earth. But what is the ultimate foundation for right social action? Even our U.S. pledge seeks “justice for all,” but who decides what is truly just? Using local and international illustrations, audiences will gain a theological framework for sustaining long-term engagement with the traumas of life—and God’s rescue mission in the midst. Suitable for men and women, teenagers and above. From a single 60-minute presentation, to three talks of 45 minutes each.

God's Global Heart...And Your Place In It

Open your eyes and examine God’s mission from four distinct frameworks: biblical, historical, cultural, and strategic. Similar to Perspectives, this curriculum introduces Christians to God’s Global Purpose and how they can best engage. Chad and Leslie facilitate this multi-week course for those interested in going deeper in theology and practice of God’s mission. Suitable for men and women, teenagers and above. These lessons and full course run for 12 weeks.
